LARGER BOOTHS RETURN TO LIGHTFAIR 2022 TRADE SHOW Trade Show June 21 – 23, 2022

LAS VEGAS – March 31, 2022 – LightFair is set to present some 300 exhibitors showing trendsetting architectural and commercial lighting ideas and products in more than 100,000 sq ft of the exhibit hall at its 2022 Trade Show, June 21 – 23 at the Las Vegas Convention Center. For its 2022 edition, larger booths are returning to the exhibit hall along with a number of debuting and notable lighting brands.

“LightFair has always been acclaimed for its breadth and depth of innovative lighting suppliers,” said Dan Darby, show director. “Brands, designers and specifiers are coming back face-to-face as trade shows return to a more normal year, and LightFair is proud to offer the industry an opportunity to drive business and networking efforts.”

As the 2022 edition of LightFair quickly approaches, more brands are returning to the in-person Trade Show setting, selecting larger booth spaces and filling the exhibit hall. Currently, LightFair has confirmed the participation of nearly 300 exhibitors, with participants in the 2022 Trade Show comprised of 90% of the exhibitors from LightFair 2021, along with an additional number of newcomers and established brands returning from a market hiatus.

Many LightFair 2022 exhibitors are returning to regular and larger than 2021 booth sizes as the industry recovers. Brands expanding their trade show footprint in 2022 include: Bukas Lighting Group, Cooper Lighting Solutions, Crestron, current, LEDRA, LEDvance, Modern Forms, Nora Lighting, Oxygen, PureEdge Lighting, RAB Lighting, SATCO Products, Seoul Semiconductor, Signify, USAI Lighting and WAC Lighting.

LightFair also welcomes a number of first-time exhibitors, ALW (architectural lighting), NLS (outdoor lighting) and CREE LED (general lighting), alongside brands unable to participate in 2021. Notable brands returning in 2022 following a hiatus include AFX, Inc., ANP Lighting, Baselite, B-K Lighting, Ferroluce SRL, Fulham, HESS, Linmore LED, LSI, LumenTruss, Myers Emergency Power Systems, OSRAM, Spectrum Lighting, Vantage Lighting and Wagner Architectural Systems.

Additional notable LightFair exhibitors confirmed for the 2022 Las Vegas lighting event include: Access Lighting, ALUZ, BARTCO, BIOS, BlackJack, Keystone and The Lighting Quotient. The full exhibitor listing and map of the LightFair Trade Show are regularly updated at <https://www.lightfair.com/exhibitors>.

The trade show will offer four pavilions – The Collective, Design Pavilion, Outdoor Pavilion and Smart Pavilion – separating brands across their designated lighting categories. The exhibit hall will also provide easily accessible on-floor education in The Designery (within the Design Pavilion) and LightFair Live and more intimate opportunities to connect and exchange ideas as part of the Outdoor Exchange in the Outdoor Pavilion and TEK Talks in the Smart Pavilion. Additionally, attendees can take part in LightFair’s many tours, including the new attendee tour and tours for each pavilion.

Adding to on-site offerings is the LightFair Conference which runs June 19 – 23, providing 43 sessions across six learning tracks. Sessions will range from 2-days, 1-day, daily workshops, 90-minute sessions and 60-minute sessions, offering 126.5 CEUs. Admission to the LightFair Trade Show is granted with the purchase of Conference sessions. Full conference information and pricing is available at <https://www.lightfair.com/conference>.

LightFair 2022 will showcase the newest and brightest innovations in lighting June 19 – 23, 2022, in the Las Vegas Convention Center’s new state-of-the-art West Hall.
